

DIPLOMAS GIVEN TO LARGE CLASS

Fifty-Four Bright Young Ladies Graduate from the Blackstone Female Institute.

MR. EGGLESTON THE ORATOR

In Address on Patriotism He Gives Wise Counsel—Other Features.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BLACKSTONE, VA., June 6.—The Blackstone Female Institute celebrated its fourteenth commencement by graduating the largest class in its history. The record of the institute has been extraordinary. Beginning fourteen years ago, with twenty-nine boarders and seventy-five students, both day and boarding, it has increased steadily every year, until the enrollment of 1907-1908 reached 403, of which number 316 were boarders. The faculty has grown from six in 1894-1895, to thirty-two in 1907-1908; the value of plant from $20,000 to $125,000; the first graduating class of two in 1895-1896 has given place to a class of fifty-four in 1908.

The commencement began with the senior reception, which was held in the new library hall, which is being fitted and furnished by the liberality of W. H. Vincent, wife of Capt. Capron, Va. who gave $5,000 for this purpose. The hall, and the corridors adjoining, were filled with the happy graduates and their friends. The decorations in the class rooms—old gold and navy blue—were artistic and effective, and the refreshments were delicious.

The annual sermon was preached by the Rev. R. H. Potts, pastor of Union Station Church, Richmond, before a great audience in the Methodist Church. It was thoughtful, appropriate, well delivered and effective, and was greatly enjoyed by the students and their attendant friends. The farewell words to the senior class were spoken by the principal at night in the institute chapel.

Superintendent Eggleston Speaks

The annual address was delivered on Monday morning at the close of a most enjoyable concert, given by the music pupils of the institute. The speaker was Hon. J. D. Eggleston, Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. Eggleston's address showed the marks of a man who had studied young life and knew where counsel and exhortation were needed. He gave "Patriotism" as his subject, and in his address he emphasized many things of importance to the young ladies just about to enter upon new responsibilities. Mr. Eggleston was heard with great pleasure by the audience, many of whom met him for the first time. Many of the hearers desired him to give his address to the press.

In the course of his address, Mr. Eggleston spoke in terms of high appreciation of the character and work of Professor R. H. Sheppe, for several years past the principal of the High School at Big Stone Gap, Va. He was a factor of the summer normal at that place. Professor Sheppe and his wife have been engaged as teachers at the Blackstone Institute for the coming session. Professor Sheppe will have the chair of pedagogy and supervision, and will also bring to the principal, and give him more time for the other departments in the school. It will also bring the work of the institute more closely in line with the public school work of the State, into which work more than three-fourths of the graduates enter.

Class Day

The class day exercises brought the usual large crowd of friends, well-wishers and parents of the graduates. The long procession of young ladies in cap and gown marching for the last time to the platform was received with enthusiastic applause. The class officers were: President, Katherine Grizzard, of Bedford; Vice-president, Florence Pedemonte, of Accomac; Secretary, Lorena Douglas Thornton, of Blackstone; Treasurer, Helen Cannon Prettyman, of Wilmington, Del.

The exercises were opened with the singing of the benediction by E. I. Senger, written specially for the institute by Rev. J. R. Sturgis. The president of the class then in a few well chosen words introduced in turn the young ladies who had won by hard work the honors of the class of 1907-1908. They were as follows: Salutatory, Louise Crymes, of Mecklenburg; history, Therese Johnson, of Halifax county; prophecy, Susie Grant, of Dinwiddie; recommendations, Ellen Walker, of Cumberland; testament, Virginia Cannon, of Blackstone; valedictory, Bettie Fowkes, of Amelia. The papers showed good training, and abounded in local hits, which greatly amused the large audience. The music for the occasion was rendered by musicians of the senior class, many of whom showed both talent and training.

The principal announced the medals for the year as follows: First Bible medal, Ethelyn Grant, of Dinwiddie; second Bible medal, Mattie Frank, of Prince Edward; third Bible medal, Courtney Williams, of Nottingham; instrumental music medal, Nellie Blanton, of Blackstone; vocal music medal, Cora Spratley, of Surry; scholarship medal, Rose Smith, of Williamsburg; general diploma medal, (receiving highest grade of scholarship and best exemplification of the school motto: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself"), Susie Grant, of Dinwiddie.

Roll of Graduates

The principal then awarded diplomas to the following young ladies:
English Graduates—Marie Ruth Bagley, of Norfolk; Grace McGuire Bishop, of Blackstone; Nellie Young Blanton, of Blackstone; Elsie M. Buckman, of Gilmerston; Ruby Miekch, of Lynchburg; Ruby Miekch, of Northumberland; Emma Francis DeBerry, of Cumberland; Laura Dickerson, of Franklin county; Laura Bridge Gooch, of Spotsylvania; Norma Bertina Edmonds, of Hanover; Florence Mary Federman, of Accomac; Sallie Aurora Fitchett, of Lancaster; Emma Beatrice Hale, of Giles; Grace Lee Hatten, of Accomac; Alice Martha Houston, of Blackstone; Margaret Franklin Johnson, of West Virginia; Nellie J. Board of Trustees

The board of trustees elected W. C. State, of Halifax, and John R. Doyle, of Dinwiddie, to fill vacancies in the board of trustees, and they will be certified to the Farmville district conference for approval and confirmation. The board also approved the selection by the principal of Professor R. H. Sheppe, as his assistant in the school work.

The board carefully inquired into the facts in connection with the cases of typhoid fever, which developed in April, and expressed its entire approval of the action of the principal and its great gratification that the action taken prevented any spread of infection, so that after April 12th, at which time the three cases developed, there were no new cases, and since then the school has maintained its usual excellent record for health.

BOWLING GREEN SEMINARY UNITED WITH OTHER SCHOOLS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BOWLING GREEN, VA., June 6.—The Bowling Green Female Seminary has been taken into the system of schools conducted by Rev. E. H. Rowe, as president, and Rev. J. S. Engle, A. B. A. M., as literary principal. The plan of this system of schools is to operate from one central point as a base, which will be Buena Vista, Va. Mr. Rowe and Mr. Engle will both remain in the Bowling Green Seminary, and will have charge of the schools as they need. They will have in the Southern Seminary, in their office at Buena Vista, one organization for all the schools of their system, and their organization will cover every department and phase of school life, work and administration. The seminary buildings, which have a beautiful location, will be greatly improved before the beginning of the next session.

WOODLAWN SEMINARY Features of Commencement Week—Had Excellent Session

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WOODLAWN, VA., June 6.—Woodlawn Seminary closed this week one of the most prosperous sessions in its history. Organized about twenty years ago, it has grown to a school with thirteen scholars. Its enrollment has rapidly increased, until this session there were more than 100 pupils enrolled. The attendance has been large, the average of work very gratifying and the health of the whole school remarkably good.

The annual program opened Monday evening, June 1st, in the Methodist Church, which was beautifully decorated with flowers and the class colors. Rev. Mr. Pail, of Tabernacle Baptist Church, Richmond, preached the baccalaureate sermon. The church was filled to overflowing by friends of the school from this place and a distance. On Wednesday evening Seminary Hall was packed to the rafters with an appreciative and interesting audience to witness the following program:
